

INDONESIAN NIGHT AT MOOMBA BEACH

Every Wednesday Night you can find an exotic Indonesian Rice Table Buffet at Moomba's Beachside Restaurant. While an Indonesian Rice Table is a dining experience probably unique to many of Aruba's tourists traveling from the United States, the Rice Table or Rijsttafel is not unfamiliar to the Dutch who are responsible for this very special way of eating.

The Rijsttafel (Rice Table) originated with the Dutch colonists who delighted in celebrating this dynamic fusion of some of the world's most exotic, unique and flavorful spices found in Indonesia.

One of the most enjoyable aspects will be meeting Tini, our secret ingredient every Wednesday Evening.

Her well-seasoned recipes include dishes of steamed seafood, a variety of meats, egg rolls, several vegetable dishes with fruits sautéed in sweet sauces and many combined with fried flaked coconut cooked with banana along with her now-famous Peanut Sauce.

"Enjoying a good rice table is the finest way to sample so many Indonesian treats in one sitting.", explains Moomba's Manager, Evert Jan. It is also a sociable way to have dinner with friends. Although it is a Dutch idea, the (Rijsttafel) Rice Table's origin is clearly Indonesian and each Wednesday you are invited to sit by Moomba's beachside Restaurant and sample this exotic blend of Indonesian cuisine....Reservations for large groups are recommended. You can call Moomba at 5865365.
